REBECCA'S REVIEWS

Hello PA C.A.R. Movie Stars,

What an exciting year that has just passed. We, as a society did a lot of Monumental Things with Wayne in command. Pennsylvania C.A.R. also did lead A Patriot's Legacy under the guidance and leadership of National President, Melissa Leigh Olde.

I would like to commend Wayne Charles Edmiston, Jr., Honorary State President for doing a wonderful job at this past state conference. Under his command, this state society shined and sparkled. I would also like to thank Cynthia Pritchard and the Francis Slocum Society for an excellent conference. They truly made it memorable for all in attendance.

National Convention was the next step for many members in Pennsylvania and I was pleased to see many members in attendance. Convention ran very smoothly with Robert Fritsch being elected to National Recording Secretary. Way to go Bobby!! You make Pennsylvania proud!

The Pennsylvania State Society Children of the American Revolution is a society that is star studded. This year I challenge you all to do your best. I challenge you to encourage many members who aren't as active to become active. I challenge you to invite prospective members to meetings. I challenge you to increase membership and to increase C.A.R. awareness. I challenge you to GET INVOLVED!

Increasing membership and C.A.R. awareness brings about many good things for us as a state society. We as a state society can shine through the lights and cameras. We can accomplish a lot of good things, which will help our society prosper. We can use what our ancestors have taught us to gain new members and to further our knowledge about our past and what our nation stands for. Remember we are a patriotic youth organization; let's show the people around us that we ARE patriotic and that we are ready for THE LIGHTS, THE CAMERAS, AND THE ACTION.

Come shine with me this summer. C.A.R. movie stars, let's shine at the upcoming Eastern Regional Meeting in Somerset, New Jersey on June 18-19. I hope that all of you can come and shine with me, as we show the National Society, that we are truly movie stars with the lights and cameras following us, capturing all of the great action we are doing.

HOGAN'S HEADLINERS

Greetings members, seniors and friends of Pennsylvania C.A.R.,

With summer comes a new C.A.R. year and this year we have cicadas as well! State Conference and National Convention are behind us. State Conference was held in the beautiful and historic setting of the converted railroad station in Wilkes Barre hosted by the Frances Slocum Society. A highlight was the tour to the Wyoming Monument, PA C.A.R.'s State Project last year, where an informational plaque will tell the story of the Revolutionary battle for future visitors to the area. Thanks to Ms. Pritchard, Frances Slocum Society and Mrs. Johnson for all the fine arrangements they coordinated for State Conference. What a wonderful success!

At National Convention, Pennsylvania was proudly represented by Wayne Edmiston, State President and Mrs. Fritsch, Senior State President and representatives from Brandywine, Colonel Thomas Hartley, Elizabeth McKinney, Falling Spring, Frances Slocum, General Anthony Wayne, Indian Paths, John Morton and Marsh Creek Societies. Our National Officers Elizabeth and Robert Fritsch also showed Pennsylvania Pride when reporting on their activities for the year. As we move into the Regional tour season, we renew our energy for a new set of National programs and the excitement of planning new events. On the State level, Becky Shaw has wonderful ideas and a great preservation project planned. Look for details later in this issue and come to Summer Workshop to hear more! Let us remember our armed forces and remind others of our patriotic duty to support their dedication.

Enthusiastically,
Miss Hogan

Our New Director: Rebecca Marie Shaw

The new State President for 2004-2005 is Rebecca Marie Shaw, from the John Morton Society. Becky has been a member of C.A.R. since 1989. Rebecca has been active on the local, state, regional, and national level and is currently a Life Member. She is the youngest of two and the third generation in her family to be active in DAR and C.A.R.

Rebecca was awarded the Robert Morris-Quaker City DAR Chapter Scholarship. She has recently graduated from Penncrest High School and will attend West Virginia University in the fall to pursue the study of Forensic Science.

LIGHTS, CAMERAS, ACTION - MEMBERSHIP!

Ready, Set, Action - - let's get in action to increase our membership this year in PA C.A.R. Remember to make reminder calls to your members to get them to attend your meetings and activities. Always ask prospective members to join in! Invite your cousins and other family members to all your gatherings. Get your newsletters mailed to your members so they can have a hard copy of your upcoming events for their calendars. Most importantly, don't forget to encourage and thank your current members for their efforts. This will be one entertaining year in PA C.A.R.

Lights, Camera, Action with PA C.A.R. !

This year's State Theme, LIGHTS...CAMERA...ACTION with PA C.A.R., under the direction of State President Rebecca Shaw, is sure to be a smash hit! By restoring the film reels at President James Buchanan's home in Wheatland, Pennsylvania, PA C.A.R. is guaranteed to break box office records. Remember to get your tickets early for the big debut in August at Summer Workshop, and don't forget, Lights...Camera...Action with PA C.A.R.!

State President's Program

Congratulations to this year's newly elected State President Becky Shaw! P.A.C.A.R.'s state project this year was named Lights, Camera, Action with PA C.A.R.! Becky chose to do a project that brings back a part of American History. This year's state project will focus on raising funds up to $1000.00 to restore film reels at James Buchanan's homestead, Wheatland. Wheatland is located right outside of downtown Lancaster. It served as President James Buchanan's home for a little over 20 years. In 1957, a day dedicated to James Buchanan was celebrated. At this time, Postmaster-General Arthur E. Summerfield unveiled the Wheatland postage stamp. This day was entitled "Wheatland Day." This day was to commemorate Buchanan's pioneering in international relations, his genius in diplomacy, and his love for friends, home, and family. At this event, there was the commemoration of the President, a pageant reenacting scenes from his presidency, which emphasized the importance of his family and friends, and lastly the commemoration of the first cable message between Great Britain and America. This day was filmed on 16mm film reels and is unable to be viewed. Becky, along with help from P.A.C.A.R., wants to obtain these film reels and have them converted into another medium. Doing this will allow for the public and staff members at Wheatland to see what happened at Wheatland on August 5, 1957. Thanks to every member for their generous support with Light, Camera, Action with P.A.C.A.R.!

2004-2005 National Project

If you were living around the time of the Battle of Monmouth you would know of its importance to the American Revolution. If you are like me, who was not living in 1778 then I will just have to fill you in. The Battle of Monmouth was one of the largest battles and the loss of British soldiers was three times the loss of American soldiers. As you can see this is an important aspect of American Revolution history and that is why this year's National Project is dedicated to educating our younger generations about the Battle of Monmouth. The staff at the Battle of Monmouth State Park is planning to create an original Battle of Monmouth coloring book. The historian Garry Wheeler Stone has employed the help of renowned historical children's coloring book artist Mr. Peter F. Copeland. Mr. Copeland's previous projects include books dedicated to George Washington, The American Revolution, and military uniforms. Mr. Copeland's books are historically accurate and educational because of his sense of detail. The coloring book will be created at Monmouth, where Mr. Copeland has agreed to work, and Mr. Stone will provide the research, the concept of the book, and the drafting text. Now you are probably wondering where C.A.R. fits into all of this. After Mr. Copeland sends the for illustrating the book. This book that C.A.R. is aiding in creating will be used to educate C.A.R. members, New Jersey school children, visitors to the park, and future younger generations about the Battle of Monmouth.

Caitlin Hogan
State Chaplain

This year's National Theme, under the direction of Patrick Reidy, is: Retracing Our Footsteps.

By doing this, the working and planning staff at Monmouth Battlefield State Park is in the process of creating an original Battle of Monmouth coloring book. They will be hiring an artist for this great project. This is very exciting because this battle was the last major battle of the North. Once this book is completed, it will be sent off to a publisher, and begin to be printed. The book will provide education for C.A.R. members and school children of New Jersey, as well as provide education to visitors of the park. Lets ALL do our part in supporting the National Theme and National Projects.

May 5, 2004

Dear Members and Seniors,

Even though we've barely had time to unpack, the Eastern Regional is only weeks away on June 18 and 19, 2004. Planning is well underway and we are pleased to begin Retracing Our Footsteps in New Jersey where the courageous Battle of Monmouth was fought. The National Program Packet will be presented for the first time at the Eastern Regional Meeting. We will set the standard! This is an excellent opportunity for the peewee patriots and early teens to actively participate with the members of the National Board.

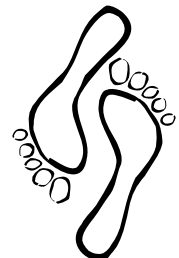

The Eastern Region is famous for outstanding hospitality, second to none; enthusiastic meetings involving all the members; and time to greet good friends and make new acquaintances. Also for seniors, it is a time to relax, plan, share and become revitalized for the new year. The Senior National Officers are always prepared with many words of wisdom.

Your generous tax-deductible contributions empower the region to live up to its reputation and heartily welcome the National and Senior National Presidents, their boards, members and seniors from across the country, and especially, the local societies from the Eastern Region. Additionally, our goal for the Silent Auction is to present the new National President, Patrick Ryan Reidy, with "seed money" for his National Project; to join with the Monmouth Battlefield State Park to raise funds to illustrate and publish a coloring book about the Battle of Monmouth, the last major (and decisive) battle of the revolution in the North. This coloring book will be available to all the park visitors and will further C.A.R's mission to educate young children about United States history.

Please join us and celebrate the legacy of freedom continually purchased by American patriots as we begin Retracing Our Footsteps.

Society Spotlight

John Morton Society

John Morton Society celebrated Memorial Day in their traditional fashion, by participating many patriotic events to mark the day. The day starts early at 7:45 a.m. to lay a wreath on the grave of John Morton, A Signer of the Declaration of Independence, then marching with the DAR and SAR in two different parades at the same time, and ending the day with the DAR at Washington Square in Philadelphia, for their annual Memorial Service. John Morton Society members mark this day in red, white, and blue to stay a special thanks to the men and women who have and are serving our country.

Washington Crossing Society

Washington Crossing Society held their first meeting in many years. The newly rejuvenated society marked Flag Day with a program for the DAR and their guests on the meaning of the Flag. Two members and nine prospective members presented the program. Way to go Washington Crossing Society!

Independence Hall Society

Independence Hall Society is reorganizing. Two members have been approved and more are in process! We look forward to welcoming a new society to PA C.A.R. in 2004!

Conrad Weiser Society

Conrad Weiser Society won a National Award for increasing their membership. Congratulations! We all should follow their example to increase membership!

Editor's Corner

As I assume the role for the second time as Editor of the Keystone Kapers, I express my gratitude to my predecessor, Cyndy Sweeney. She produced a wonderful, high quality newsletter for four years. I hope I will be able to continue her creative ideas, in order to provide all the needed information to our member, seniors and supporters across the state.

I need articles from any member or society about our programs, society events, artwork, games, and puzzles. Please email me all information you would like to share to Margfritsch@aol.com.
